Work with NGOs and/or CSOs

Canada, through the Canada Centre for Community Engagement and Prevention of Violence, works with a variety of organizations in order to help counter radicalization to violence, for example:

- Furthering Our Communities by Uniting Services (FOCUS) Toronto is led by the Toronto Police Service, City of Toronto, and United Way Toronto and York Region, and partners with local agencies to assess the needs of individuals experiencing acute health or social problems that require a multi-disciplinary intervention. FOCUS is building capacity to add radicalization to violence to the range of issues addressed.
- Ottawa Multiagency Early Risk Intervention Tables (MERIT) is a collaborative intervention program supported by the Ottawa Police Service, local agencies, and service partners that aims to reduce crime and victimization and to improve community resilience and well-being. MERIT is building capacity to address cases of individuals

- Edmonton Resiliency Project is a collaborative approach to prevention and intervention that draws on trusted community and organizational relationships to prevent violent extremism. Engagement, education, and online and offline intervention are delivered by the Edmonton Police Service, City of Edmonton, and Organization for the Prevention of Violence.
- Calgary Re-Direct is a partnership between the City of Calgary, Community and Neighbourhood Services, the Calgary Police Service, and other professional partners that uses a multidisciplinary approach to intervention with youth and young adults who are vulnerable to radicalization to violence.

In the Province of Québec, the Centre for the Prevention of Radicalization Leading to Violence (CPRLV), aims to:

"Prevent radicalization leading to violence and hate-motivated behaviours by educating, mobilizing and supporting the people of Montreal and Quebec in a community-based approach that is deployed in order to take pre-emptive action, oriented towards accessibility for all, in collaboration with partners from all backgrounds and rooted in both scientific and practical expertise."

Conferences Hosted

♦ While holding the G7 Presidency in 2018, Canada hosted the Leaders Summit in Charlevoix, Québec, as well as a meeting of the Foreign Affairs and Security Ministers of the G7 countries in Toronto, Ontario.

The IPU is the global organization of national parliaments.
The IPU is the global organization of national parliaments.

What began in 1889 as a small group of parliamentarians, dedicated to promoting peace through parliamentary diplomacy and dialogue, has since grown into a truly global organization of national parliaments. Today, our membership inches ever closer to being universal, with 179 Member Parliaments, 13 Associate Members, and increasing numbers of parliamentarians from all over the world involved in our work.
